Petersbourg, July 5.

ON Saturday the 2d Inſtant, M. Romanzoff, Son to the Firſt Ruſſian Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs of Abo, arrived here with the important News of the Concluſion of the Peace between Ruſſia and Sweden, and of the Election of the Duke-Adminiſtrator of Holſtein as Succeſſor to the Crown of Sweden. On Sunday the 3d, at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, this great News was proclaimed by the Firing of the Cannon round the Caſtle. At Ten, her Imperial Majeſty, accompanied by the Great Duke, went in State to the Cathedral to hear Divine Service, and after the Te Deum was ſung, the Cannons were fired three Times round the Caſtle and the Admiralty; and the three Regiments of Guards, which were drawn up before the Church, made a Running-Fire. When her Imperial Majeſty was returned to the Summer Palace, all the Foreign Miniſters, except the French Envoy, (who was indiſpoſed) had the Honour to congratulate her Majeſty. In the Afternoon, a Detachment of the Horſe Guards rode about the Town with white Scarves, holding an Olive Branch in their Right Hand inſtead of a Sword, and the Officer, who was at the Head of them, performed the Office of a Herald, and proclaimed the Peace in the moſt publick Places of this City. In the Evening there was a very numerous Appearance of Perſons of Diſtinction at Court, to make their Compliments to her Imperial Majeſty. The Night concluded with Illuminations through the whole City; and the good News has been received by the Publick with the greateſt Demonſtrations of Joy. Her Imperial Majeſty's Return to Moſcow next Winter is reſolved upon.

Stockholm, July 15, O. S. The Orders are given for Lieutenant-General Bodenbroke's Execution To morrow, and that Day Sevennight, the 23d Inſtant, is fixed for that of General Lowenhaupt, the Nobles having confirmed his Sentence on Tueſday laſt, as the three other Orders of the States had done a few Days before.

Vienna, July 24, N. S. We have now received the News of the Surrender of Straubing. The Garriſon conſiſted of about 800 French, and 5 or 600 Bavarians, who were permitted to march out of the Place with ſome Military Honours. General Berenclau march'd directy from thence to attack Ingolſtadt, which, it is hoped, may ſoon be reduced, as there are not above 700 Men in Health of the Garriſon left in it, tho' the whole Number be 3000.

Copenhagen, July 30, N. S. Two Placards, dated the 13th and 16th Inſtant, are juſt published under the Seal of the Chamber of Finances. By the former, the high Duties are taken off from all Sorts of Looking Glaſſes that ſhall be imported hither from Abroad, an Impoſition of 2 per Cent. only being laid for the Future upon unground Glaſſes, and 8 per Cent. upon thoſe that are ground and prepared, according to their Value. The other Placard revives the uſual Duties upon Foreign Corn Imported into Norway from the 1ſt of Auguſt next, ſince the Price of Corn is now conſiderably fallen, and they have Hopes of a plentiful Crop this Year in the Daniſh Dominions.

Hambourg, July 31, N. S. The new appointed Succeſſor to the Throne of Sweden continues almoſt daily to receive different Deputations to congratulate his Royal Highneſs, as that Prince is now ſtiled, upon this important Event. The Nobility of that Part of Holſtein, denominated by the Term of Gemeinſchaffitlich, which implies the joint Government of the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holſtein, as well as the Nobility of the immediate Ducal Part of that Country, having agreed to depute hither Meſſ. Liliencron and Brockdorff, thoſe Gentlemen were admitted to an Audience of the Biſhop laſt Monday; as were, the ſame Day, the Deputies from the Chapter of this Cathedral, and the Deputation from the Province of Ditmarzen. We hear, that the Privy-Counſellor Berkentin, who is arrived at Copenhagen from his Embaſſy to Sweden, will be ſent with the ſame Character to the Court of Ruſſia. Count Teſſin has had his Audiences of that of Denmark. The Magiſtrates here have laid a Tax of four Rixdollars for every Horſe which their Inhabitants ſhall keep, either for Carriages, of what Kind ſoever, or as Saddle Horſes, &c. It is to commence the 23d of Auguſt of the current Year, and to be continued for a Term of four Years: The Officers are not to pay this Annual Tax for their Horſes, and thoſe employed for Hackney-Coaches, and the Uſe of Brewers and Scavengers are likewiſe to be exempted.

Liege, Auguſt 2, N. S. The French are amaſſing exceſſive Quantities of Grain and Flower, which are collected at Landreci, and diſtributed from thence to Philipville, Maubeuge and Givet. We hear that the whole Quantity ordered amounts to 150,000 Sacks of 200 Weight each, of which great Part is actually brought in, and that having already filled the Granaries of their Caſerns, they have given Orders for lodging the Reſt in the Convents. That they are alſo making large Proviſions of Hay and Oats in the ſame Towns. That they work with great Diligence to finiſh the Cauſeway from Givet to Dinant; and that 5000 Labourers are employed in forming that from Maubeuge to Landreci, &c. which is to be 90 Feet broad.
